

Notice of privacy

Notice of privacy

SV Redes y Soluciones Integrales para Educación y Capacitación S de RL, (weknow), address Nebulosa Street 2870, Jardines del Bosque, Guadalajara city, Guadalajara municipality, zip code 44520, federal entity of Jalisco, country, Mexico; commits to manage with fully confidentiality the personal data you provide to us, according to the applicable legal dispositions.

The treatment weknow will give to your personal information has the objective of keeping you up about our company and platform, facing an eventual commercial relationship with weknow due to your interest in them, in order to obey the company's policies and the applicable legal dispositions.

Your personal data could be transferred to the different areas in weknow just as third parties, on the condition that the transference is related to the objectives mentioned in the previous paragraph.

Weknow has implemented diverse safety measures to protect the personal data, such as restricted access to the database, privacy agreements which the personnel of weknow assume, about all the information they access because of their respective functions, among others. You could have access to your data or request a rectification, opposition or cancellation, through a written request aimed to weknow Administrative Management.

The current Notice of Privacy, depending on its modifications from time to time, could be consulted through the website platform's login and it must be accepted once the user access using the username and password, to continue the navigation. In case of rejecting this agreement to use your personal data, the platform will not allow the access, in order to keep the safety of the information. In this case, the person must contact the company or institution which requests the access to clarify this issue.

In case of doubts or comments, please contact us through the e-mail address: admin@we-know.net

